

The Diem Blockchain

The Diem Blockchain is managed by validator nodes, which are servers that help operate the blockchain.

The validator nodes form a network that developers and businesses can build financial services and products on.

This can help facilitate a more connected global payment system.